

The Arlington Martin Luther King Jr. 2001 Celebration

“Sharing The Dream”

The “Sharing The Dream” Banquet 6:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 12

UTA - E.H. Hereford University Center (Bluebonnet Ballroom) Dinner banquet features the highly-acclaimed Chase Bank of Texas Choir and presentations by the “Sharing the Dream” essay and art scholarship winners.

Dr. Harold Davis
Keynote speaker
Champaign, Ill.

“One of the characteristics of a society in decline is when the mature, empowered men neglect to spend time with the next generation of men.”

About the Speaker...

Author of Talks My Father Never Had With Me and Talks a Father Should Have With His Daughter. Minister, schoolteacher, musician, businessman, entrepreneur, husband and father.

Tickets are $25 for adults and $15 for students. Purchase “Sharing The Dream” Banquet tickets today by calling the Arlington Independent School District 817-459-7217 or the Bob Duncan Community Center at 817-465-6661.

Jr. Explore 2001

9:30 - 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 13

UTA - E.H. Hereford University Center
(Red River Concho Suite)

Designed for children ages 6-13. Through art and dialogue, participants learn about the life and times of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Artist Tolliver Lewis facilitates this free session featuring Metro Christian Academy Choir.

Explore 2001

9:30 - 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 13

UTA - E.H. Hereford University Center (Rio Grande Ballroom) Designed especially for young adults ages 14-18. This session focuses on the leadership styles and characteristics necessary for meeting the challenges of the 21st century. A noted consultant and trainer leads this free session.

The High Noon Step Show

12-2 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 13

UTA - Texas Hall

Competition showcases local step talent from area high schools. Entry fee is $25 per team, with first place winning $200, second place $100 and third place $50. Tickets are $5. Call 817-459-7217 to register.

The Multicultural Festival 3 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 13

TCC Southeast Campus
2100 Southeast Parkway
(New York and Sublett)
A grand celebration of the ethnic cultures within Arlington and the Metroplex, featuring traditional song, dance and food. This event is free and open to the public.

The Hubert Moss Ecumenical Service 6 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 14

First United Methodist Church, 313 N. Center St. Arlington comes together in worship and praise. The Rev. Michael Evans of the Bethlehem Baptist Church in Mansfield leads this traditional service. Event features the All-City Boys and Girls Choir and the Four Seasons Chinese Choral Society. A public reception will immediately follow the service hosted by the Xi Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

The Rev. Michael Evans

Sharing The Dream Youth Extravaganza

7 p.m. Monday, Jan. 15

UTA - Texas Hall

On what would have been King's 72nd birthday, more than 500 youth remember King's legacy with song, dance and drama presentations. Free event features 14 elementary school choirs, area high school and junior high school chorus groups.

Youth Extravaganza 2001

Special thanks to our major sponsors:

Arlington Star-Telegram

TCC

UTA

AISD

Arts and Cultural Grants Program

Arlington Ministerial Association

For more information, call the MLK Event Hotline 817-459-6430 or the City of Arlington Public Information Office at 817-459-6402.

By popular demand! T-shirts on sale beginning Jan. 12.

