

VISION STATEMENT

Fish Creek Neighborhood Is a Welcoming Place

The people of Fish Creek Neighborhood are caring; while children play in their front yards, neighbors connect with one another at their front porches.

The people of Fish Creek Neighborhood are active in celebrating its diverse and rich culture through festivals, live music, and other events in the Fish Creek Neighborhood Park. The thoughtful, continuous and committed action by the people who live here, people of all ages, races and other persuasions makes this neighborhood special!

Fish Creek Neighborhood Is Safe

Neighborhood Programs supported by community watch has won recognition for Fish Creek Neighborhood as Arlington's safest neighborhood.

Pedestrian lighting, distinctive crosswalks, reduced speed limit, and no cut-through traffic within the neighborhood provide a secure environment.

Fish Creek Neighborhood Has Great Schools

Excellent schools with beautifully landscaped campuses are a distinguishing part of the community.

Owing to strong and committed ties between neighborhood and school, children participate in community activities and residents volunteer with school's activities.

Fish Creek Neighborhood Is Accessible

It is easy to travel to and from Fish Creek Neighborhood because of the convenience of nearby traffic carriers. The addition of numerous trails and pathways serve as alternatives to automobile use within the neighborhood.

High quality, pedestrian friendly developments, meeting daily and special needs, are conveniently located adjacent to the neighborhood.

Fish Creek Neighborhood Is Clean and Beautiful

The presence of well-kept homes, front yards, and businesses is evidence that neighborhood residents are good stewards of their property and are ready to protect it as best they can for the generations to come.

Attractively landscaped public open spaces and entryways provide a sense of place and identity for the neighborhood.
